Has anyone got a recording of Mills's radio play, "Mutiny at Spithead" circa 1950, or of Mrs Aileen Mills in the radio serial "At the Luscombs" in which she played Dot? "Lor, lumme Charlie 'Arry, you know I won't 'ave that language..."

Mills beat me for talking in the lines after break. My fault, 3A lined up right under his window, so I was asking for it!

It's a curious thing but, even though the war had only been over 3 years, I can't recall any master or boy talking about what had happened, but we knew that Saxon Walker (English) had been in Intelligence and Richard Fox (History) had been on the (Zeebrugge) raid on the submarine pens.
